

Priory Park Geocache trail

Looking for something new to do at the weekend? Then why not try a high-tech treasure hunt (Geocaching trail) around Reigate Priory Park.

What is geocaching?

Geocaching is an exciting outdoor adventure for the whole family. It's a treasure hunt for the digital generation. All you need is a handheld GPS or mobile phone with GPS app (go to www.geocaching.com to download the app for your phone).

A geocache or 'cache' is a small waterproof treasure box hidden outdoors. Geocachers seek out these locations guided by coordinates put into their GPS device.

The cache

All our caches have a log book for you to leave a message in and a small treasure. You can bring something to swap with this treasure. It's important to remember that if you take a treasure out of the box, you should leave another trinket in its place.

Always leave the cache in the same place and in the same condition as it was found for the next visitor.

To follow the Reigate Priory Trail follow the gps locations listed below. To find the last cache you need to solve the clues on the way.
