Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions are subject to review and as such, the Council's current terms and conditions at the time of application will prevail.

- i. The season ticket must be displayed in the front windscreen of the vehicle so that the start date, expiry date and season ticket number are clearly visible at all times.
- ii. A season ticket may only be used in the Council's Pay & Display Car Park stated on the season ticket.
- iii. The season ticket is not transferable between vehicles unless prior arrangement made.
- iv. A season ticket must not be photocopied. Where two vehicle registrations are present on a season ticket, the season ticket must be transferred between vehicles.
- v. All season tickets begin on 1st of a calendar month. This application form must be received at least 10 working days in advance of the commencement month to guarantee sufficient time for processing & dispatch.
- vi. Some of the Council's car parks have a maximum stay of 3 hours parking, and any short term parking restrictions must be adhered to.
- vii. A season ticket only permits the holder to park in a Pay & Display bay within the Council's car parks and does not permit the holder to leave their vehicle in bay marked otherwise.
- viii. Failure to display a season ticket or overstaying in a short term car park or space will result in a Penalty Charge Notice being issued.
- ix. Season tickets are not available in person from the Earlswood Depot.
- x. A season ticket does not guarantee a parking space.
